Costumes and pumpkins make the Market Halloween headquarters

By MARIE ARY

This October look for pumpkins from Frog's Song Farm, of Fir Island, and costumes from Just Horsin' Around, of Vashon Island, along the day stalls outside on Pike Place and inside the North Arcade.

The 98-year-old Pike Place Market tradition of "meet the producer," selling direct to customers along Pike Place, continues as 287 farmers and craftspeople bring their finest, including the organic pumpkins and more of Nate O'Neil and Shannon Dignum's Frog's Song Farm, Fir Island, and the children's costumes and adult wizard robes of Laura Daughenbaugh and Tom Graham, Just Horsin' Around, Vashon Island.

Organic Wednesdays, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., will continue through month-end
